

Learn the Court of Atonement Healing Process to Heal Your Relationships

The Court of Atonement is a spiritual principal that solves conflicts at the soul level. Once you understand how to use this process you can begin healing yourself, your loved ones and even your pets.

I'll be interviewing Amy Jo Ellis about her Full Court of Atonement healing process and exactly how you can hash out any conflicts in your relationships on the ASTRAL plane...which means no arguing! no confrontation! and potentially lots of healing.

I used this recently on my whole family. Results? I can't wait to SHARE with you what happened in my family after I did this!
